To Those Who Climb

Through the years that have passed there are students who, having caught the vision that Auburn Academy has given them, have continued from the day of their graduation to climb to heights of usefulness; to those, who unsatisfied to remain on the lowlands of ease and inactivity, and who, ill content with anything but real victory in spiritual and moral battles, have struggled upward until they have neared the summit of service to mankind in their chosen lines, whether it be in the ministry of God's Word, in the medical field, in the teaching profession, or elsewhere; to those who have already achieved, and

To those courageous youth, Seniors of 1944, who also are willing to fight the good fight of faith and to give themselves in service, and who are today turning their eyes upward toward ultimate spiritual victory,

THIS 1944 RAINIER VISTA IS ADMIRINGLY DEDICATED.

*Within the reach of finite man
God has placed infinite heights to attain.*

A Message from the Chairman of the Board

I am a firm believer in education, and education in our own schools. But when I think of education from the standpoint of cold knowledge alone, I think of our large public high schools, with their marvelous equipment, libraries, laboratories and all the facilities of the best public education system in the world. Then I think also of how the senior class of 1944 of Auburn Academy might have received their diplomas and grades from one of these good institutions, and I ask, "What is the difference? Why attend Auburn Academy at all?" And then as I think of the fine staff of Christian men and women who are devoting their lives as teachers of our youth in this excellent academy, I believe the answer to this question is found in Philippians 3:10, "That I may know HIM, and the power of His resurrection—." May the blessed Master grant this may be true of every student of this fine academy.

Don Hiatt Spillman.

The Principal's Message

For the last few decades character building has been out of fashion in most schools. J. Edgar Hoover, while speaking recently to the Boys' Clubs of America said, "We are developing a generation of money-rich and character-poor Americans. Hundreds of thousands of boys and girls are earning high wages in war plants. All too many of them spend their money in pursuit of questionable pleasure rather than in preparation for the future." The outstanding aim, however, of Auburn Academy is character development and the instilling in the hearts and minds of young people a love and appreciation of Christian ideals.

Not only is it the purpose of this school to prepare for college, but also to give a practical and cultural education to that large group who will never have the opportunity to benefit by what the college has to offer.

As you glance through these pages, we trust that you will receive an inspiration to come to a school where students may practice the real business of living while continuing their preparations for greater usefulness. I wish to extend my personal invitation to you to come to Auburn Academy.

THE ACTS.

18 Thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and thou shalt carry these whither thou wilt.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

Christ's charge to Peter. [260]

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, day in day, until he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them

40] Christ's ascension.

41 days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

42 And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which ye have heard of me.

43 For John truly baptizeth with water: but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

44 Which he hath promised, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time receive us again into Israel?

45 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the seasons, which the Father putteth in his own power.

46 But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

47 And when he had spoken these things, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you, shall so come again in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, and Philip, and Thomas, and Bartholomew, and the son of Alphaeus, and James the brother of 14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

The background of the page features a very faint, sepia-toned illustration. It depicts a large, multi-story school building with a prominent central entrance and several windows. In the foreground, there is a wide set of steps leading up to the entrance. Several figures, presumably students, are scattered throughout the scene: some are standing on the steps, one is walking down them, and others are visible in the courtyard area to the right. The overall style is that of a vintage yearbook or school catalog.

Complete education involves the acquiring of manual skills as well as the development of the head and heart. In the many departments of the furniture factory, in the kitchen and bakery, on the farm, in the laundry, the boiler room, the dairy, there are excellent opportunities for the exercise of physical skill. There is the multiple advantage to the enterprising student to improve his own abilities along these lines, to acquire a trade-in-hand for future use, and also to earn a substantial amount toward his school expenses. There have been ambitious and energetic boys and girls who have earned all their school expenses, and many others who have earned a creditable part of their expenses while carrying on a successful study program. The combination of manual work with study has been found to be more than ordinarily beneficial to the student.

We Will Press On

By Donald Moore

*Tonight we dream;
our dreams all lie ahead,
and flowers bloom along the pathway of our thought.*

*Our dreams are bright;
as fresh as springtime flowers and free as birds asinging through the April rain.*

*Tomorrow dawns;
realism breaks the current of our thought and bursts the bubbles of our dream.*

Will our faith stand, unmoved, though mists of doubt press in to seal our hearts in darkness like a tomb—

*Will we press on,
though heavy be the load upon us, and dark the night, and hid the noonday sun—*

*Will we not faint, though we are worn, and crave
a draught of water from the Saviour's well of life—*

*Will we shed forth our light, and let it gleam like beacon rays to pierce the darkest midnight gloom?
We know not now.*

*We cannot pierce
into the future's haze, and tell if we will steady stand or lose the way;*

*But we can let the Saviour mould our lives as best it pleases Him from day to coming day—
Thus shall we stand.*

Ours may not be the greatest place to fill but we must fill it; this is all He asks.

*If we may live to see the Son of God
set up His throne, and say, "Well done, thou faithful friend!"—
Then happy is our lot;*

*But should it be that it would serve Him well for us to yield our lives an offering God knows best—
He knows what we know not.*

*To live or die,
where'er our lot be cast,
O Class of Forty-four, let's stand like heroes to the last!*

General Information

DESCRIPTIVE

The buildings consist of two separate dormitories, the administration building, the new industrial building with a floor space of 21,000 square feet, the heating plant, the manual arts building, and fifteen houses for teachers. The new gymnasium, 160 by 55 feet seating about 1500, is now almost completed. A service building to contain a modern laundry, cannery, pasteurizing plant, home economics department, and maintenance department will be built this summer.

The location of the school is unusually attractive, on the edge of a plateau overlooking the Green River Valley, with the snow-covered Olympics visible in the west, and beautiful Mount Rainier dominating the landscape toward the east. The buildings are set in a campus of several acres, which is fringed on three sides with evergreens of various kinds. The academy farm consists of about 150 acres, much of which is improved and growing good crops. A new farm with a good dairy barn was purchased recently. The school now has a fine dairy herd of nearly 40 cows to provide milk and cream for the dining department as well as about 600 hens to supply the kitchen with fresh eggs.

The administration building contains, in addition to offices, music studios and class rooms, the chapel seating about 300, the enlarged dining room with seating capacity of 250. The library with more than 2,500 volumes is also located in this building.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

In connection with the academy are a number of organizations, religious and social, which give the students opportunity to develop leadership and their talents of speaking and writing, as well as training in various kinds of missionary work.

Most prominent of these is the Missionary Volunteer Society, conducted throughout the school year by the students, and working in harmony with the general department. Many active bands carry on the work of this organization, including the Master Comrade, Literature, and Sunshine bands. These bands tend greatly to stimulate missionary activities among the students.

The Academy Sabbath School is conducted largely by the students, assisted by teachers.

The students of the Academy have developed an organization known as the Associated Student Body of Auburn Academy. The purpose of this organization is to promote the social and cultural interest of the student body.

THE STUDENT'S PLEDGE

It is distinctly understood that every student who presents himself for admission to this school thereby pledges himself to observe its regulations, and live in harmony with its ideals and purposes. Unless he is willing to do this freely and without reservation, he will not be admitted to the school. If this pledge is broken, he will be retained only by the sufferance of the faculty for such time as he is not a serious detriment to others. Students who fail to respond to appeals addressed to their manhood or womanhood or sense of honor, and those whose influence is found to be harmful, will not be allowed to remain in the school even if they have been guilty of no specially culpable offense. On the other hand the faculty pledges the parents that they will faithfully endeavor, to the limit of their ability, to help young people who seem not to appreciate the privilege and responsibilities that come to them. No student will be lightly dropped from the school, and parents may be assured that their children will be given every opportunity to develop Christian characters as long as they show a desire to cooperate with the teachers toward that end.

SOCIAL GUIDANCE

To assist the student in moving through the academy life with a minimum of friction and at the same time to contribute to his physical, mental and moral powers is the goal of all academy regulations. A kindly application of the following broad basic principles is the aim of the faculty.

No student is retained who uses tobacco in any form. Nor can the school tolerate profane or indecent language, disorderly conduct, card playing, including flinch and other like games, also such games as checkers or chess, gambling, dancing, improper associations, the possessing or reading of novels and story-magazines, visiting of pool rooms or other places of detrimental influence. Neither can students be allowed to attend the theater, moving picture show or any other entertainment of an objectionable character, because these interfere with the student's work and exert a wrong influence in the school.

The seventh day is observed as the Sabbath, and a proper quiet and decorum is expected of all students. Engaging in unnecessary work or improper recreation on this day is out of harmony with the spirit of the institution.

Young men and women may associate in a frank, manly and womanly manner at times and in places that are proper and in harmony with the spirit of the school; but sentimentalism, note writing, flirting, strolling together about the grounds, or elsewhere, loitering about the campus or sitting together in public services are not conducive to the best progress in study or to the good name of the school.

As this academy was established for the purpose of giving a distinctly Christian education, no student is retained who either publicly or secretly seeks to disseminate immoral or atheistic ideas among his fellow-students.

The home is not a public building. No lady or gentleman would think of entering a private home without permission; hence people living outside, in calling upon members of the home family are expected to observe the civilities of social convention.

It is expected that all students have respect for academy property, and in case of destruction of property of any kind, such as breaking windows, dishes, or tools, the honest student reports the breakage and settles for it.

Because modesty in dress is conducive to sound character building, students should dress simply and sensibly, avoiding extremes. For girls, simple dresses are recommended. The excessive use of cosmetics, the wearing of French or other extremely high heels, very short skirts, sleeveless dresses, low backs, transparent waists, jewelry such as necklaces, finger rings or bracelets is not in harmony with the principles of the institution. We strongly urge parents to supervise their daughter's wardrobe, and save her embarrassment by eliminating anything out of harmony with these principles.

Students who are not Seventh-day Adventists may attend the Academy without feeling any embarrassment whatever, as long as they do not interfere with the plans for which the school is established.

It is expected that young ladies will be properly chaperoned whenever leaving the campus.

Unmarried students whose parents or legal guardians do not reside in the vicinity of the school should board and room at the Academy. Certain circumstances might arise where an exception should be made to this rule. Such cases will be considered by the faculty upon written request with reasons fully stated by the applicant.

If it seems necessary, or to the best interest of the student, faculty permission may be obtained for correspondence work or private lessons.

Should a student be absent 10 per cent of the class recitations during one semester his grades are subject to a cut of one point (from A to B or B to C etc.). Also should a student be absent as much as 20 per cent of the class meetings in one class he may forfeit his grade. The class work missed can be made up if due to prolonged illness.

The management provides from time to time pleasant social gatherings and outings for the students. All gatherings of whatever nature, have a faculty chaperon, and a list of students invited is submitted to the principal at least two days beforehand.

Parents are requested not to give permissions that conflict with the rules of the school.

All classes are entered or dropped by a voucher signed by the principal.

No firearms are allowed on the school premises.

DORMITORIES

The dormitories are in charge of experienced teachers who understand young people, and are able to help them solve their problems. Constant appeal is made for sincere cooperation on the part of every student in maintaining wholesome standards of living on the principle that kindness and confidence are more efficacious than stringent rules. Careful attention is given to the study of the personality of each student, and methods are employed that will best bring out the individuality of each. In a special way the government of the Home rests upon the mutual good understanding between teacher and pupil.

It frequently happens that students are unexpectedly called for, and inasmuch as the home management should at all times know the whereabouts of those under their charge, no student should leave the campus without permission from the preceptor or preceptress.

It is desired that the school be quiet and orderly, and that students shall conduct themselves in a manner consistent with a refined home. Loud talking, running up and down stairs, entering rooms without the consent of the occupant, and scuffling anywhere in the building are out of order.

Picture moulding is provided in all rooms. No tacks should be driven into the walls.

The school home is conducted on the same principles as are well regulated Christian homes. Morning and evening worship are maintained in the school homes throughout the year. The deans who are responsible for the worship hour give careful study to these exercises in order that all may be benefited by attending. Every student is expected to be present, and those in charge of the Home require a reasonable excuse for absence.

All students are expected to attend public services on the Sabbath, unless excused by the dean, in which case they will remain in their own rooms.

Owing to the modern easy means of travel, there is a strong tendency on the part of students and parents for frequent week-end visits home. This, however, has been found to be detrimental to the best interests of the school. Therefore it has been recommended that the faculty do not grant permission for such visits more often than once in six weeks, except in extreme cases. Requests should be made to the deans by the parents, in writing, several days before leave of absence is desired. In all cases the faculty reserves the right to decide as seems necessary for the best interest of the school.

Flesh foods are not served in the dining room, and should not be brought into the school homes.

A student's being absent from the dormitory after evening worship without permission is considered a serious violation of the rules of the dormitory.

All trips farther than Auburn from the school must be authorized by the principal.

The school is not responsible for any personal property left on the premises after a student leaves school.

Phonographs and radios are not permitted in the dormitories.

Do not bring popular music.

WHAT TO BRING

Each student should bring four sheets, three pillow slips, a pillow, and a bed spread, warm blankets or comforters, towels, dresser scarf, and a cover for his study table, 30x48 inches; also work clothes, and a laundry bag. Our denominational books such as The Testimonies, Desire of Ages, Christ's Object Lessons, Steps to Christ, will be of help. No rugs, carpets or window curtains are furnished with the rooms, but should be brought by the student if desired. A few pictures for the walls are desirable. Girls should bring curtains for one window 5x3½ feet. Boys should bring curtains for two windows 5x2½ feet. Girls should bring a curtain for clothes closet door which is 6½ x 2-1/3 feet. The boys' and girls' dormitories are equipped with single beds. Each student should be provided with a pair of noiseless slippers to be worn during study period.

It is suggested that any girl who expects to sing in the choir or chorus, provide herself with a dark skirt—either black or navy blue—and a white long-sleeved shirtwaist style blouse. White satin is suggested. This provides a uniform appearing group upon public performances, and such an article of dress as a dark skirt is always useful in a girl's wardrobe.

Boys who expect to take part in glee club, choir, etc., will find a dark suit and white shirts of great service when purchasing new items for the wardrobe.

MISCELLANEOUS

To remit, send money by draft, check, or money order payable to Auburn Academy, not to an individual.

Mail for students residing in the Homes should be addressed to them, care Auburn Academy, Auburn, Washington.

For those coming by train, tickets should be bought and baggage checked to Auburn, which is reached by all main line railroads. If coming by bus from Seattle to Auburn, take the Enumclaw bus, and ask to be let out at the Academy stop. Those notifying the Academy are met at Auburn.

No student under fourteen years of age is permitted to reside in the school Home unless he has completed the eighth grade or has made special arrangements with the school management.

Students arriving Sunday and Monday of the opening week of school are given free transportation from Auburn to The Academy. Students arriving late are charged for transportation.

Withdrawal: If withdrawal becomes necessary for any reason, the proper method is to secure a drop voucher from the principal in order to avoid further charges for expenses.

School supplies, stationery, and toilet articles may be purchased at the Academy.

Automobiles may not be brought to the school by students unless they have first made special arrangements with the principal. Experience has proven that free access to an automobile during the school year is detrimental to good work.

The school assumes no responsibility in forwarding personal belongings such as clothing, blankets, or books to students who withdraw from the school.

Labor credit either by students or parents is not transferable nor redeemable in cash except as authorized by Board action.

HEALTH SERVICE

At the beginning of the school year a thorough physical examination is compulsory. During the year a reasonable number of consultations and the attention of the physician are covered by the medical fee. Hospital care, medicine, laboratory service and operations must be paid for. For the benefit of the students a school nurse is employed by the school. Her attention and care are added to the guidance of the deans of the school homes.

ANSWERS TO FINANCIAL QUESTIONS

1. How can a room be reserved?
By sending in an application (on special blank) accompanied by a $5.00 deposit.
2. Is an advance deposit required?
Yes. An advance deposit of $44.75 is required of all dormitory students. A deposit of $21.75 is required of all students living outside of the dormitories. These amounts include the first semester entrance fee ($9.50—to cover matriculation, library, minor medical items and laboratory charges. $.25 is turned over to the Student Association treasurer.) The balances of $35.00 and $12.00 respectively are set aside as working capital for the school and will be credited back on the last month's statement or at the time of withdrawal. Usually the deposit covers the cash payment required on the last month's personal charges.
3. What are the monthly fixed charges for dormitory students?
The monthly fixed charges for board, room, laundry, and tuition are: boys, $48.00; girls, $47.00.
4. What is the cost of tuition for students who do not live in the school home?
Non-dormitory tuition is $14.00 per month for four subjects.
5. Are there other fees aside from the regular monthly charges?
The entrance fee is designed to cover matriculation, science laboratory, library, gymnasium fees, and minor medical service. The entrance fee is $9.50 for the first semester. A similar charge will be made at the opening of the second semester.

OTHER FEES

Typewriter rental, one period daily	$1.00 per month
Piano rental, one period daily	1.00 per month
Piano, vocal, strings (violin, cello, etc.), woodwind (flute, clarinet and saxophone), brass (cornet, trombone, baritone, etc.) and percussion, one lesson per week	3.50 per month
Class or group lessons on above instruments	2.00 per month
Graduation fee (includes diploma)	2.50
Special examination (not semester)50
Special semester examinations	1.00
Tray service to room (each tray)10

6. What is the cost of books?

$8.00 to $12.00 is usually ample for textbooks. Often second hand books are available at a saving.

7. What discounts are offered?

a. Cash—

A cash discount of 6 per cent is granted where the year's expenses are paid in full at matriculation.

A cash discount of 5 per cent is allowed for promptness in meeting payments on the various installment plans.

b. Family (dormitory)—

If the expenses of two students are met by one individual a family discount of 5 per cent on tuition and room is granted, and where the expenses of three or more students are met by one individual a liberal family discount of 15 per cent on tuition and room will be allowed.

8. What budgets or financial plans does the school offer?

The charges for boys are the same as last year, while the charges for the girls have been increased slightly. Yet, due to the higher hourly rates which will be paid to the girls, the cash payment plus the amount of work at the higher hourly rate will be approximately the same for the average girl as the plans which have been in effect for the past two or three years.

Additional plans have been worked out for the girls so as to be more adapted to their needs. The average hourly rate for girls has been stepped up from eight to fourteen cents per hour. The girls will be paid rates from $.30 to $.36 per hour as compared to the $.22 rate which has been in effect. Girls may qualify for the Woodshop Plan in special cases.

Plan IV	28.50	414.00	44.75		48.00	27-29

These plans are approximations and do not include miscellaneous fees above listed such as music, breakage, etc., is additional. Rates vary thus: girls 30 to 36 cents per hour; boys, 30 to 38 cents per hour; woodshop boys and girls 40 to 42 cents per hour.

The Woodshop Plan is open to boys and girls sixteen years of age or older who can qualify by meeting the requirements of the Department of Labor and Industries and must show promise of developing skill in furniture making and woodwork.

9. What are the dates for the financial statements and time of settlement?

The school year is divided into nine periods of four weeks each. The deposit is due and payable at matriculation. The closing dates of the nine periods are as follows:

- | | | |
|----------------|-----------------|--------------|
| (1) October 7 | (4) December 30 | (7) March 24 |
| (2) November 4 | (5) January 27 | (8) April 21 |
| (3) December 2 | (6) February 24 | (9) May 19 |

(Financial statements will be issued as of the above dates.) The discount will extend not more than 15 days beyond the above closing dates. Since the school has set its charges as low as educational efficiency will permit, prompt payment must be expected.

COURSES AND GRADUATION

College Preparatory: This curriculum permits students to select, besides their required courses or subjects, several units from such fields as music, practical arts, and commerce.

Prerequisites for professional students: students planning to study theology in college should include in their academy work two units of the same foreign language, two units of mathematics, and one unit uppergrade science.

Those planning on the medical or dental courses should take, as part of the graduation requirements, two units each of mathematics, science, and foreign language.

COLLEGE PREPARATORY COURSE ENTRANCE AND GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

A student is admitted to the Academy upon the presentation of an eighth grade certificate or grades from accredited schools, or upon passing satisfactorily, examinations in subjects for which credit is claimed. Students are required to present grades from other schools upon matriculation.

To graduate from the college entrance course, a student must complete the studies listed as required above and select enough electives to have at least sixteen units. When a foreign language is elected, two years of the same language are required.

A student may elect two units of music credit in meeting the requirements for graduation. Credit is given for piano, voice, violin, all wind and reed instruments, as well as chorus, glee clubs, band, orchestra, and other organization work.

Appreciation to Advertisers

The large number of advertisements which we have printed in the Rainier Vista in past years has been cut down this year to only a few. Through the years that have passed we have appreciated beyond words the loyalty, support, and interest of all our advertisers. The fact that they are not all represented in this Annual is not because their interest has not been as it always has been; we are sure that it would have shown itself if they had been solicited. We hope in the future to have them all represented again. By this small word we wish to express our sincerest appreciation to them, and to solicit the patronage of all our readers for the following:

LADY ATTENDANT

THREE YEARS INSTEAD OF FOUR

Wise use of the courses offered by the Home Study Institute has made it possible for some ambitious young people to go through the academy in three years.

All students will benefit by taking some work by correspondence. It makes the summers much more enjoyable when a portion of the day, preferably the early morning hours, is given to intellectual culture.

Correspondence study makes it possible for one to save time and money, and get a new thrill from the visits of the postman and the friendly guidance of a devoted teacher.

Our latest catalogue is yours for the asking. Write for it now, and begin to lay plans for a pleasant and profitable summer.
